Hi Kathy!

Increase to State Minimum Wage

The West Australian Industrial Commission has increased the Minimum Conditions of Employment pay rate by $19.90 per week to a new weekly amount of $607.10.

The decision will apply from July 1st, 2011 and will flow into all State Awards.

In its decision, the Commission said "We consider that the balance of the evidence and submissions before us in the context of the considerations under s 50A (3) of the Act permits an increase to the minimum wage which tends more towards addressing in a modest way the decline in the value of the WA minimum wage relative to average earnings than an increase based principally upon the notions of maintaining purchasing power and set the WA minimum wage at $607.10 per week".

Best Regards,
The Workwise Team
