

Hi Friend!

YOU AND YOUR MEMBERSHIP

Are you getting the full bang for your buck?

Amazingly enough for many of our members the answer is a resounding 'No'!

Whilst many members have taken the pro active step of undertaking a membership with us we are constantly amazed at the number of our members who seem to have little understanding of their membership rights or whose management staff remain blissfully unaware that help is only a free phone call away.

Here are some simple questions for you to consider:

- When was the last time you picked up the phone and called us with a question or point of clarification regarding your workplace?
- How well does your management staff understand the benefits of your membership – do they even know your business has a membership?
- Do you fully understand our range of services and which free services are available to you?
- Do you receive and read our E Bulletins and Brew Review?
- Have you checked out our website recently to look at our range of services and products?

- Are you aware that as a Workwise member you can access Wexford Recruitment Solutions professional recruitment services at generously discounted rates?
- Did you know that Workwise is a para legal organisation licensed to appear in the WA Commission and Fair Work Australia on your behalf?

We'd love you to pester us with your workplace queries and reassure us that you are acting proactively and with a close eye on your risk management.

We'd hate to be standing alongside you in the Commission when a simple call could save you a lot of angst.

WHY NOT CALL US TODAY AND REALLY START UTILISING YOUR MEMBERSHIP $$ WE'D LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU!

If you have any questions in relation to this article please call our office on 9792 4451 to discuss.
